

In order to subconsciously assist the user in recalling where each step or tool would be found, the following is established convention.

Workflow is ALWAYS left to right

Tools to adjust hits/saved searches/ report factories are above work screen

Help, contacts, etc. are above screen